SEASON PREVIEW

Head Coach Eric Musselman enters his second year at the helm of USC Men's Basketball, guiding the Trojans into their sophomore season in the Big Ten Conference. He is joined by returning assistant coaches Will Conroy, Todd Lee, Michael Musselman and Anthony Ruta. Completing the coaching staff is former NBA player Earl Boykins, who enters his first season as an assistant coach for the Trojans. Previously, Boykins was an assistant coach for the UTEP Miners from 2021-2025.

During their Big Ten debut, USC showed flashes of momentum and wrapped up well at home, finishing 12-7 at Galen Center. The program graduated two players, Saint Thomas (Philadelphia 76ers) and Chibuzo Agbo (San Antonio Spurs) to the NBA Summer League. With 13 newcomers, including 10 players from the transfer portal, USC brings one of the nation's top transfer classes (No. 7 overall, No. 6 defensively) into the 2025-26 season.

USC strengthens its perimeter rotation in grad student Chad Baker-Mazara, junior Rodney Rice and junior Jordan Marsh. With his last two years at Auburn, Baker-Mazara (6-7, 175) brings deep March Madness experience to Southern California, posting a team-high 18 points in the Final Four matchup against Florida. As the team's second-leading scorer, he averaged 12.3 points per game and recorded 25 games in double-digit scoring figures. The two-way player from Santo Domingo shot nearly 45 percent from the field throughout the season. Baker-Mazara brings size and scoring punch to USC, having 1,159 total points in his collegiate career.

Junior guard Rodney Rice (6-5, 200) averaged nearly 14 points per game at Maryland, scoring in double-digits 26 times for the Terrapins. Rice shot 43 percent from the field and 37 percent from deep, making him a top scoring threat for USC. The four-star recruit combines shot creation with playmaking, making him an all-around dangerous offensive option.

Another high-volume scorer is Marsh (5-10, 150), boosting his average scoring output from 6.2 points per game as a freshman to 18.8 points per game as a sophomore at UNC Asheville – the highest scoring average in conference play since the 2019-20 season. Named as the Big South Conference's Newcomer of the Year, Marsh became the first player at UNC Asheville to earn the honor. The North Carolina native scored 20+ points in 14 matchups, with a career-high 33 points, six three-pointers and eight assists against High Point.

Complementing that perimeter firepower, USC has also fortified its interior with size, strength and versatility. Junior forward Ezra Ausar (6-9, 250) comes from Utah, where he shot nearly 52 percent within the arc and put up double-digits in 20 contests, including a season-high 26-piece against BYU. He was the Utes' second-leading scorer. Ausar brings explosive energy and unique athleticism to the Trojan's interior. This defensive and offensive powerhouse is capable of setting the team's tempo. He is the second Trojan transfer to hit the 1,000-point mark in his collegiate career.

Sophomore forward Jacob Cofie (6-10, 230) adds emerging talent to the Trojans' roster, averaging 7.2 points and 4.6 rebounds in his first collegiate season at Virginia. He scored in double-digit figures in 10 games, and his mobility and length set him up to be a productive frontcourt piece.

The Trojans also landed defensive dominance in its recruits in the paint. Senior forward Amarian Dickerson (6-7, 200) was tabbed the Horizon League's Defensive Player of the Year, averaging 2.3 blocks across 35 games. Dickerson posted a steady 13.3 points per game, including a notable game-high 25 points in the first round of the NCAA Tournament against Alabama in his hometown of Cleveland. Dickerson is notorious for being a disruptive, off-ball presence. He can do it on both ends, shining in transition and having a good touch by the net.

Another monster paint protector is junior center Gabe Dynes, who earned Horizon League All-Defensive Team honors. At a 7-5 frame, Dynes led the nation in blocks with 104 across 34 games. The Dynes-Dickerson duo will give the Trojans a solid defensive backbone by the rim.

Graduate forward Jaden Brownell (6-10, 235) averaged 14 points at Samford University, leading the team shooting 51 percent on the court. He scored double digits in 24 games, along with a career 27-point showing against George Mason.

The Trojans also bring in freshmen talent in Alijah Arenas, Jerry Easter II and Patrick O'Brien. Although Arenas is in recovery from an injury in the lead-up to the 2025-2026 season, his role as a teammate and leader remains crucial. The five-star recruit from Chatsworth is the No. 3 player coming out of California and 13th in the nation. Averaging over 30 points per game throughout his high school career, Arenas led the Chancellors to win the 2024 State Regional Title and was a McDonald's All-American. From Toledo, Ohio, Easter (6-5, 185) is a unanimous four-star recruit, the No. 2 player in Missouri, and the No. 3 combo player in the nation. He was an EYBL Scholastic Champion last year for the Link Academy Lions, capturing the tournament title with 15 points, six assists and three rebounds. He was a two-time Player of the Year for the Lions. Easter is known as a confident scorer and creative facilitator, averaging nearly five assists per game. Guard Patrick O'Brien (6-5) averaged nearly eighteen points and four assists at Cathedral Catholic High School, along with leading the team in rebounds at eight per game. In two years, he surpassed the 1,000-point mark. He'll bring shooting efficiency to the Trojans, knocking down 41% beyond the arc and 47% from the field. O'Brien is a two-time All-CIF First Team and All-State Open Division selections.

Graduate guards Ryan Cornish and EJ Neal Jr. add depth to the Trojan wings. Cornish (6-5, 170) averaged 17 points and nearly five rebounds in the 2024-2025 season, earning First-Team All-Ivy League honors. He finished with 1,014 total points at Dartmouth. He's demonstrated versatility in shot creation, from the three-pointer to attacking the paint. Neal (6-5, 200) led Sacramento State in three-pointers and scored in double digits 13 times.

Forward Terrence Williams II (6-7, 235) will come back to USC's frontcourt as a graduate student. Williams logged three double-digit performances during the 2024-2025 season, with a season-high 20-point performance against San Jose St (Nov. 20). Sophomore guard Jonah Goorin and sophomore forward Brit Burden also return to the Trojans after joining the team last season and making an appearance in the College Basketball Crown (Apr. 1).

With a mix of veteran transfers, proven scores and top-tier new talent, Musselman's 2025-2026 squad will look to combine toughness, tempo and intensity. After laying the groundwork in their inaugural Big Ten campaign, the Trojans aim to make noise in the conference.

ERIC MUSSELMAN

HEAD COACH • SECOND YEAR

Eric Musselman has over 30 years of coaching experience, including 10 years as a collegiate head coach. As one of the winningest active coaches in college basketball, Musselman is ready for his second season with USC Men's Basketball, bringing in one of the best transfer portal classes in the nation and some of the most elite freshmen to build this year's roster.

He took the role with the Trojans on April 5, 2024, creating a team from scratch with only one player from the previous team returning to the roster. With this new team built in the famous Portal House, Musselman and his staff were ready for their first season in the Big Ten. He led the Trojans to key victories, including a win in Galen over No. 7 Michigan State and on the road over No. 13 Illinois. Along with that, the Trojans took down Rutgers in a double-overtime thriller in the first round of the Big Ten Championships before falling in a tight contest to Purdue. USC went on to compete in the inaugural College Basketball Crown, taking down Tulane in the first round before falling to Villanova in a close 62-61 game. To add to those successes, he coached his first All-Big Ten honoree in Desmond Claude, who finished with honorable mention honors, and developed one of the best freshmen in the Big Ten in Wesley Yates III. Off the court, the team had the best GPA in program history, boasting a 3.264 GPA during that season.

Prior to USC, Musselman was the head coach at the University of Arkansas. In his five seasons with the Razorbacks, Musselman kept a record of 111-59 while making back-to-back Elite Eight appearances and three-straight Sweet Sixteen appearances for the first time since the mid-1990s. These winning seasons were bolstered by the talent Musselman brought into Arkansas. He had two seasons with the Top Five recruiting classes with the likes of Moses Moody, Anthony Black and Nick Smith Jr., with all three of those players being selected in the First Round of the NBA Draft. He also coached the 2020 SEC Co-Player of the Year and All-American Mason Jones along with two other All-Americans in Moody and JD Notae.

Before making his way to Fayetteville, Musselman began his collegiate head coaching career at the University of Nevada, where he led the Wolf Pack for four seasons to a 110-34 record. He won the CBI title in his first year before going to three-straight NCAA Tournaments after that, including a Sweet Sixteen run in 2018. In his first year with the program, Musselman created a new culture for the program, making the sixth-most improved program in the NCAA after their CBI win. He topped that off with the NCAA Tournament run in 2018 that earned him numerous Coach of the Year honors. Adding to that, Musselman also coached the Wolf Pack into the AP Top 25, staying in the Top 10 for 16 consecutive weeks. He also developed phenomenal talent, including two-time All-American and Mountain West Player of the Year Caleb Martin. Over those four seasons, 13 of his players earned All-Mountain West honors.

Over his 10 years as a head coach, Musselman produced four All-Americans, two conference Player of the Year honorees, three Sixth Man of the Year recipients, and 21 All-Conference players.

Before becoming a collegiate head coach, Musselman spent two seasons at Arizona State and one year as an assistant at LSU. With the Sun Devils, he helped the team make it to the second round of the NIT before earning an NCAA Tournament berth the following year. He was promoted to associate head coach after his first season, coaching an NBA second-round pick in Carrick Felix and the Pac-12 Co-Freshman of the Year in Jahii Carson. In his one season with LSU, Musselman helped develop two All-SEC selections in Jarrell Martin and Jordan Mickey.

Musselman's career began in the professional ranks, both as an assistant and head coach across the NBA, CBA, USBL and NBADL. His teams have collected six division titles and have advanced to the postseason seven times. He coached 24 players who went on to play in the NBA. Five times he was named CBA all-star coach. In addition to mentoring players to NBA careers, three of his former assistant coaches are current NBA head coaches, including Jim Boylan (Chicago Bulls), Scotty Brooks (Washington Wizards) and David Fitzdale (New York Knicks).

Musselman's first head coaching job came at the age of 24 when he was hired by the Rapid City Thrillers of the Continental Basketball Association in 1989. He was the youngest coach in CBA history and the fastest to win 100 games.

From there, he went on to lead the USBL's Florida Sharks, garnering a 53-3 record in two seasons. He also guided the Sharks to a league championship, which earned him USBL Coach of the Year honors.

After working as an assistant under Doc Rivers and Hall of Fame coach Chuck Daly, he was named the head coach of the Golden State Warriors in 2002. He led the Warriors to 38 wins, a team-high in more than 10 years, and was runner-up in the NBA Coach of Year voting. He also coached the Warriors during the 2003-04 season.

Following a year as an assistant with the Memphis Grizzlies under Mike Fratello, he coached the Sacramento Kings for the 2006-07 season.

Musselman made his first stop in Reno for the 2010-11 season when he was head coach for the NBA D-League's Bighorns and led them to their first Western Conference title in franchise history.

Musselman worked as an analyst on radio and television prior to coaching the Reno Bighorns (2010-11) and LA D-Fenders (2011-12) of the NBADL. In 2012, he earned Coach of the Year honors.

While coaching the Reno Bighorns in NBADL, he worked with Jeremy Lin, Danny Green and Steve Novak, who were called up to the NBA. Gerald Green, Malcom Thomas, Darius Morris, Jamario Moon and Courtney Fortson also earned trips to the NBA when he coached them with the D-Fenders.

Musselman also has experience coaching international basketball, serving as the head coach of the Dominican Republic National Team (2010-11), Team China and Team USA in the Adidas Global Experience (2009, 2010), and the Venezuela National Team (2011-13).

A native of Ashland, Ohio, Musselman grew up in Minneapolis and San Diego before he spent his high school years just south of Cleveland in Brecksville. After high school, he made the move back to the West Coast to play basketball at the University of San Diego. During his time as a Torero, he was a part of a team that made two NCAA Tournament appearances and boasted a 24-6 record his senior year. Off the court, Musselman earned West Coast Conference All-Academic Team honors three times.

Musselman is married to Danyelle Sargent Musselman, who worked as a broadcaster for ESPN, Fox Sports and the NFL Network. Musselman has two sons, Michael and Matthew. He and Danyelle have a daughter, Mariah.

Musselman's father, Bill, was also an NBA head coach. They were the first father-son combo to become head coaches in the NBA.

WILL CONROY

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND YEAR

Will Conroy is in his second season as an assistant coach with USC Men's Basketball. Conroy was hired by Head Coach Eric Musselman in April 2024 after spending nine seasons on the men's basketball coaching staff at his alma mater, Washington, serving as the associate head coach for his last two seasons with the Huskies.

During his time in Seattle, the Huskies made one NCAA Tournament appearance, two NIT Tournament appearances, and won the 2018-19 Pac-12 regular season title. He coached four McDonald's All-Americans and has mentored five players who have been selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. Some of the NBA talent he developed while at Washington includes Markelle Fultz, Jaden McDaniels, Dejounte Murray, Jaylen Nowell, Isaiah Stewart and Mattise Thybulle.

Conroy's collegiate basketball career began as a player when he suited up for Washington from 2001-05. He initially joined the program as a walk-on but went on to finish as the program's all-time assist leader with 515. He also still holds the senior record for assists (219) and finished third all-time in career assists per game at 4.3.

Conroy was the first Husky to top the 200-assist mark during a season and the first to surpass 100 assists in three different seasons. Additionally, he was the 23rd player in Pac-12 history to hit the 500-assist mark and the 18th to also score 1,000 points. He earned honorable mention All-Pac-12 accolades as a senior and was voted the team's MVP, along with serving as the team captain during his junior and senior seasons.

While playing at Washington, Conroy helped the Huskies reach the NCAA Tournament in back-to-back years and earn the program's first No. 1 seed, while also making their first Sweet 16 appearance since 1998. Additionally, Conroy led the Huskies to consecutive Pac-12 Tournament Championship games in 2004 and 2005 and took that trophy home as a senior after UW defeated No. 8 Arizona. Washington's 29 wins that season also tied the 67-year-old school record.

Following his collegiate career, Conroy spent seven years playing for various teams in the NBA and overseas before taking a front office position for the Minnesota Timberwolves. During his pro career, Conroy earned the 2009 NBA D-League Sportsmanship Award and saw action for the Grizzlies, Clippers, Rockets and Timberwolves.

Conroy graduated from Garfield High School in Seattle, Washington, where he led the program to four-straight league championships. The Bulldogs boasted a 100-15 record during his prep career, and he picked up All-King County First Team honors during his senior season after averaging 14.5 points and 3.6 assists.

Conroy has two children, William Jr. and Madison, and is married to Tanika Latte.

MICHAEL MUSSELMAN

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND YEAR

Michael Musselman enters his second season as an assistant coach at USC during the 2025-26, helping to guide the Trojans during their first season in the Big Ten Conference.

Before arriving in Los Angeles, Musselman was on the staff for five seasons at the University of Arkansas, working his way up to becoming an assistant coach in the 2023-24 season. He started with the Razorbacks as the director of recruiting in 2019-20, before being named the assistant director of basketball operations for the 2020-21 season. He was eventually promoted to the director of operations for the 2022-23 season.

While advancing through the ranks, Musselman played a crucial role in recruiting for the Razorbacks, helping the coaching staff secure the second-best recruiting class in the country in 2022. This class was highlighted by six players ranked among the ESPN and SI.com Top 100, including three McDonald's All-Americans in Nick Smith Jr., Jordan Walsh and Anthony Black. Those three were all selected in the Top 40 of the 2023 NBA Draft. Arkansas was one of two college programs to have three players selected in the 2023 NBA Draft and the only one with two or more players selected in the Top 40.

The year before, the Razorbacks brought in four transfers that were instrumental to the team's second-straight Elite Eight run. Arkansas also finished that season eight in the AP Coaches Poll.

In Musselman's first year guiding the recruiting efforts, Arkansas had the fifth-best recruiting class, securing Top 40 prospects in Moses Moody and Khalen Robinson. They also locked down two four-star recruits in Davonte Davis and Jaylin Williams, who were the co-Arkansas High School Players of the Year. This is also when Musselman began his work in the transfer portal, bringing in three high-caliber graduate students. This same year, Moody secured SEC Freshman of the Year, All-SEC First Team and All-America honors before being selected 14th in the NBA Draft by the Golden State Warriors.

Over his five seasons at Arkansas, he helped propel the Razorbacks to levels they had not reached in 25 years, making back-to-back Elite 8 appearances, a Sweet 16 run and winning 20 or more games four times.

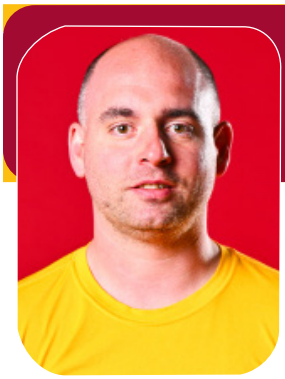
In addition to his growth while with the Razorbacks, Musselman also served on the staff for the Cleveland Cavaliers' 2023 NBA Summer League team, which won the NBA Summer League championship.

Before Arkansas, Musselman spent the 2018-19 season as a graduate assistant at Nevada, helping the team win 29 games, a Mountain West Championship and earn an NCAA Tournament berth.

His college basketball experience began as a student manager at his alma mater, the University of San Diego. In his four years with the Toreros, he assisted the team in practice sessions, scouting reports, film editing and statistical analysis.

Musselman continues the coaching legacy that was started by his grandfather, Bill Musselman, and continued by his father, Eric Musselman, who is the current head coach at USC.

He graduated with his bachelor's degree in communications and a minor in business administration from the University of San Diego in 2018. Musselman also earned his master's degree in educational leadership from Nevada in 2019.



ANTHONY RUTA

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND YEAR

Anthony Ruta is entering his second season as an assistant coach at USC after being hired by head coach Eric Musselman on May 16, 2024. He brings over a decade of coaching experience at the collegiate and professional levels, including five seasons at Arkansas under Musselman, where he served three seasons as the Razorbacks' director of basketball operations and later as an assistant coach.

During his time at Arkansas, Ruta helped guide the Razorbacks to three consecutive NCAA Sweet 16 appearances, including back-to-back Elite Eight runs in 2021 and 2022. From 2020 to 2023, Arkansas posted an SEC-best 95 wins. His impact extended beyond team success; he was instrumental in the development of numerous standout players, including 2020 SEC Player of the Year Mason Jones, 2021 NBA lottery pick Moses Moody, and 2022 All-American JD Notae.

Ruta played a key role in Arkansas' nationally acclaimed 2022–23 freshman class, which featured three McDonald's All-Americans: Anthony Black (No. 6 pick in the 2023 NBA Draft), Nick Smith Jr. (No. 27), and Jordan Walsh (No. 38). All three were "one-and-done" selections.

In addition to coaching, Ruta was responsible for assembling Arkansas' competitive schedules, which helped prepare the team for deep postseason runs. With his support, the Razorbacks consistently faced top-tier competition. The 2022–23 schedule ranked No. 2 nationally in overall strength of schedule, No. 3 in nonconference RPI, and No. 4 in nonconference strength of schedule.

Before his tenure at Arkansas, Ruta spent four seasons on staff at Nevada, including two as an assistant coach (2016–18) after initially joining as director of basketball operations. His time in Reno coincided with one of the most successful stretches in program history: the Wolf Pack won at least 24 games in each of his four seasons, captured three Mountain West regular-season titles, and made three NCAA Tournament appearances—including a Sweet 16 run in 2018.

During his time as an assistant coach at Nevada, the team tied a program record with 29 wins in both the 2016–17 and 2017–18 seasons, earning national rankings and finishing in the top 25 of both the AP and Coaches polls. Ruta also helped develop NBA players Cody and Caleb Martin, who were key contributors during that historic stretch.

Prior to joining Musselman at Nevada, Ruta served as an assistant coach with the Fort Wayne Mad Ants of the NBA Development League, where he focused on defensive game planning and skill development for guards and wings. He worked with NBA veteran Dahntay Jones and D-League All-Star MVP Andre Emmett.

Ruta began his coaching career at his alma mater, Arizona State University, as a graduate assistant from 2012 to 2014. He assisted with scouting, game preparation, player development—particularly with the guards—and coordinated operations such as scheduling, team travel, recruiting logistics and academic oversight. As an undergraduate at ASU, he served as head student manager for two seasons, working closely with the coaching staff on daily operations and workouts.

Ruta earned a Bachelor of Arts in English Literature from Arizona State in 2012 and a Master's in Higher Education in 2014.

TODD LEE

ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND YEAR

Todd Lee brings more than 30 years of coaching experience to the USC men's basketball program, including 12 seasons as a collegiate head coach. He was named an assistant coach under Eric Musselman on May 16, 2024, and enters his second season with the Trojans in 2025-26.

Lee joined Musselman at USC after two seasons on his staff at Arkansas (2022–24), where he served as director of scouting and later as an assistant coach. His longstanding relationship with Musselman dates back to the early 1990s, when the two coached together for the Rapid City Thrillers in the CBA (1992–94).

During his first season at Arkansas, the Razorbacks advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 and had three players selected in the top 40 picks of the 2023 NBA Draft - Anthony Black, Nick Smith Jr., and Jordan Walsh. Another standout, Ricky Council IV, earned All-SEC honors and signed with the Philadelphia 76ers.

Prior to Arkansas, Lee was the head coach at his alma mater, South Dakota, from 2018 to 2022, compiling a 66-52 record and earning Summit League Coach of the Year honors in 2021. During his tenure, he coached multiple All-Summit League selections, including Stanley Umude, who was a three-time All-League performer and one of the nation's top scorers in 2020-21.

Lee led South Dakota to a 19-12 record in 2021-22, including a 12-5 mark down the stretch after a two-week shutdown of the program due to COVID, while reaching the Summit League semifinals. His 2020-21 squad won 10-straight games and started 9-0 in league play for the first time since 1992-93. That season also featured a road win at rival South Dakota State, snapping SDSU's 32-game conference home win streak. In 2019-20, the Coyotes finished 20-12 and ranked among the national leaders in field goal percentage, three-point percentage, and points per possession.

Before South Dakota, Lee served five seasons (2013–18) as associate head coach at Grand Canyon University, where he helped lead the Antelopes through a successful transition to Division I. GCU posted a 103-58 record during his tenure, made four straight postseason appearances, and reached the WAC championship game in 2018.

From 2005 to 2013, Lee was the head coach at Division II powerhouse Kentucky Wesleyan. He guided the Panthers to five NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, a Sweet 16 berth in 2012 and a No. 1 national ranking. His teams averaged 22 wins per season over his final six years as he was recognized as the 2008 GLVC Coach of the Year, 2010 NABC Midwest Region Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2012 Clarence "Big House" Gaines National Coach of the Year award.

Lee also spent eight seasons at UC Irvine (1997–2005), the final four as associate head coach. Under his guidance, the Anteaters captured two Big West regular-season titles and achieved three consecutive 20-win seasons. UC Irvine also played in the National Invitation Tournament in 2001 and 2002.

He previously served as an assistant coach at Cal State Bakersfield (1994–97), where the Roadrunners won the 1997 NCAA Division II National Championship.

Lee's professional coaching career began in 1992 as an assistant coach with the CBA's Rapid City Thrillers, where he helped organize the first U.S. pro team to tour China, finishing 5-0 against the Chinese National Army team.

His coaching journey began at the junior college level with Southwestern College (1986–89) before spending three seasons as an assistant at the University of San Diego (1989–92).

A native of Huron, South Dakota, Lee graduated from the University of South Dakota in 1986 with a degree in business administration and earned a master's in education from Azusa Pacific in 2003.

He and his wife, Brooke, have six children: Carson, Jackson, Peyton, Georgia, Emi, and Anna.

EARL BOYKINS

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST YEAR

Earl Boykins, a 13-year NBA veteran and one of the most respected player development minds in college basketball, enters his first season as an assistant coach at USC. He was hired on May 30, 2025, joining head coach Eric Musselman's staff as they head into their second season competing in the Big Ten Conference.

Boykins reunites with Musselman at USC as the two share a long-standing connection that dates back to 1999 when Musselman was an assistant coach with the Orlando Magic and Boykins was just beginning his professional career. Boykins later played for him during the 2002–03 NBA season with the Golden State Warriors, when Musselman served as head coach.

One of the most inspirational figures in basketball history, Boykins defied expectations at every level. Standing at 5'5, he enjoyed a successful NBA career that spanned more than a decade, playing in over 650 games with teams including the Los Angeles Clippers, Cleveland Cavaliers, Denver Nuggets, Milwaukee Bucks, Houston Rockets, Golden State Warriors, Orlando Magic and Washington Wizards. Known for his elite quickness, scoring ability, and leadership, Boykins totaled nearly 5,800 points and more than 2,000 assists during his NBA career. He also played internationally, leading Virtus Bologna to a EuroChallenge Cup championship in 2009.

Most recently, Boykins served as an assistant coach at UTEP from 2021-25, where he played a critical role in building a competitive culture. Under his guidance, the Miners recorded multiple winning seasons and reached the Conference USA Championship Game in 2024. That season, UTEP ranked among the national leaders in steals and turnovers forced per game, a testament to Boykins' defensive coaching and attention to detail. His work earned him an invitation to the 2024 TopConnect Basketball Symposium, which spotlights rising stars in the coaching profession.

Prior to UTEP, Boykins served on Musselman's staff at Arkansas as the director of student-athlete development, helping the Razorbacks reach the Elite Eight in the 2020–21 season.

Before Arkansas, Boykins was an assistant coach for the Orlando Magic in the 2019 NBA Summer League.

Boykins began his coaching career in 2013 at Douglas County High School in Colorado, where he took over a winless program and guided it to three consecutive playoff appearances. His ability to connect with young players and inspire confidence quickly became his trademark.

Before the pros, Boykins was a standout guard at Eastern Michigan University from 1994 to 1998. As a senior, he was the second-leader scorer in the nation, averaging 26.8 points per game and was named the recipient of the 1998 Frances Pomeroy Naismith Award, given to the nation's top player under 6 feet tall. He was a two-time All-MAC First Teamer and earned All-America Honorable Mention honors. As one of the most decorated players in EMU history, his No. 11 jersey was retired by the school in recognition of his impact on the program.

Boykins is a 1998 graduate of Eastern Michigan with a degree in communications.

RECORDS AND HISTORY

Jordan McLaughlin was a three-year captain for the Trojans who finished his career as the school's all-time leader in minutes played, second in assists, third in steals and games played, fourth in points and fifth in three-point baskets. He is one of three Pac-12 players to register 700 or more assists and 1,600 or more points in a career.

HISTORY OF USC BASKETBALL

Since its inception in 1907, USC Men's Basketball has established itself as Southern California's first basketball powerhouse. Through 118 seasons, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,725-1,284 (.576)*, capturing 14 league championships and one conference tournament title. The program has produced 25 All-Americans and placed five coaches in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame. USC has made 21 NCAA Tournament appearances with four Elite Eight showings

By the 1920s, USC established itself as the top team in Los Angeles and won its first Pacific Coast Southern Division League title in 1928. The Trojans dominated the next two decades, claiming 10 league titles in 16 years, including five consecutive championships from 1932-36.

The architect of this golden era was Sam Barry, USC's all-time winningest coach with a 260-138 record (.653). Barry won eight conference titles during his tenures (1930-41, 1945-50) and compiled a remarkable 40-game winning streak against crosstown rival UCLA from 1932-42 and 1946, the longest winning streak by any coach against a single opponent in college basketball history. His 1940 squad was widely considered the best team in the country.

USC and NBA great Paul Westphal

Four of Barry's players — Jack Gardner, Alex Hannum, Tex Winter and Bill Sharman —went on to Hall of Fame coaching careers. Gardner played for Barry from 1930-32, led the conference in scoring, and became one of only three coaches to lead two different schools to multiple Final Fours (Kansas State in 1948 and 1951, Utah in 1961 and 1966).

Bill Sharman earned All-American honors in 1950 before a legendary NBA career with the Boston Celtics (four championships, eight All-Star selections). Known as "Bullseye Bill" for his exceptional free-throw shooting, Sharman later coached the Lakers to their first Los Angeles championship in 1972. USC retired his No. 32 in 2007.

Tex Winter lettered in 1947 and later gained national prominence as the architect of the triangle offense, bringing it to the Chicago Bulls' coaching staff during their six championships in the 1990s.

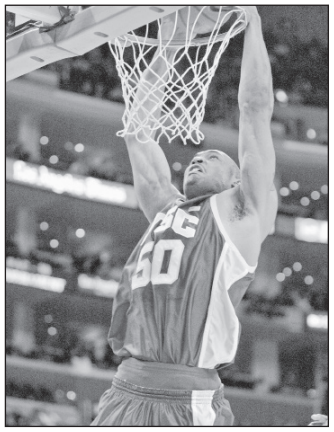
USC remained formidable during the 1950s and 1960s behind standouts like John Rudometkin, whose 18.8 scoring average remains second all-time at Troy for players who played more than one season. USC and NBA great Paul Westphal USC surged in the 1970s under head coach Bob Boyd. In fact, Boyd led the Trojans to their best regular season record ever, a 24-2 mark in 1971 that earned them a No. 5 national rank. USC won 24 games again in 1974 and won 20 in Boyd's final year in 1979.

The Trojans returned to prominence in the early 1990s, thanks in large part to the school's all-time leading scorer, Harold Miner. Dubbed "Baby Jordan," Miner was named Sports Illustrated's Player of the Year in 1992, leading USC to a 24-6 record and a school-best No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament. He averaged 23.5 points per game and accumulated 2,048 career points. His No. 23 jersey was retired in 2012.

Former UCLA star Henry Bibby took over the USC program in 1997 and kept USC among the top teams in the West. Included in Bibby's three NCAA Tournament teams was a breakthrough 2001 Elite Eight team, marking the Trojans' furthest foray in the Big Dance in the tournament's current format. Only eventual champion Duke was able to slow the Trojans down.

That 2001 team featured NBA draftees Brian Scalabrine, Jeff Trepagnier and Sam Clancy. The Trojans returned to the NCAAs again in 2002, but were a first-round upset victim in overtime to UNC Wilmington.

Tim Floyd revitalized the program beginning in 2005-06, immediately posting a 17-13 record in his debut. The 2006-07 Trojans set a school record with 25 wins and advanced to the Sweet 16 behind first-team All-Pac-10 guard Nick Young (drafted 16th overall by Washington).



USC's 3rd all-time scorer and 2nd all-time rebounder Sam Clancy

USC again reached the NCAA Tournament in 2007-08 with a 21-12 record behind freshman O.J. Mayo, who following the season became USC's highest-ever drafted player when he was chosen as the third pick in the NBA draft. The Trojans went 22-13 in 2008-09, captured their first Pac-10 Tournament title by defeating NCAA-bound California, UCLA and Arizona State, then joined them in the Big Dance where they fell in the second round to NCAA runner-up Michigan State.

Following the season, DeMar DeRozan (No. 9) and Taj Gibson (No. 26) were both first-round draft picks, marking the first time in school history USC had two players selected in the first round. The Trojans were the only program with a top 16 pick in each of the three drafts from 2007-09.

Andy Enfield arrived in 2013 fresh from leading 15th-seeded Florida Gulf Coast to the Sweet 16. In his third season, he guided USC to the 2016 NCAA Tournament — its first postseason appearance in five years—and three victories over UCLA. USC returned to the national rankings in 2016 for the first time since 2008.
The 2016-17 Trojans posted a 23-9 regular-season record (USC's most since 1992) and won a school-record 26 games overall (26-10) with two NCAA Tournament victories. In 2017-18, USC went 24-12 and finished second in the Pac-12, its highest conference finish since 2002.
Behind Pac-12 Player, Defensive Player and Freshman of the Year Evan Mobley, the 2020-21 Trojans went 25-8 and advanced to the fourth Elite Eight in school history, where they fell to overall No. 1 Gonzaga. In 2021-22, USC set the school regular season win total with 25 and finished the regular season ranked No. 22 and tied the school overall wins record with 26 (26-8). USC went 22-11 and tied for second in the Pac-12 during the 2022-23 season and earned a No. 10 seed in the NCAA Tournament. USC's 182 wins from 2016-23 are the 14th-most among the Power 6 teams during that period and its 95 wins during that span are tied for sixth-most among Power 6 teams.

The Eric Musselman era officially began on April 4, 2024, as the former Arkansas head coach assumed the position of USC Men's Basketball head coach. Musselman was 111-59 at the helm for the Razorbacks, and led the Hogs to three straight Sweet 16 berths, including a pair of Elite 8 appearances. At his previous stops (Nevada 2016-17, Arkansas 2020-21), Musselman led his teams to NCAA Tournaments in his second seasons with a combined 53-14 record.

In the Trojans' first year in the Big Ten, Musselman led USC to a 17-18 overall record, pulling off upset wins against No. 7 Michigan State and No. 13 Illinois, as well as a thrilling double-overtime win against Rutgers in the first round of the Big Ten Tournament.

 Not including 21 wins & 1 loss vacated in the 2007-08 season due to NCAA penalty (original all-time record:1,694-1,230 (.579).  21 wins and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised 2007-08 record: 0-11).*

USC MEN'S BASKETBALL

2025-26 TROJANS MEDIA GUIDE

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Listed below are USC's game-by-game results for each year since the school formed a basketball team in 1907. Included next to each year's heading are the Trojan head coach for the season and the team's overall season record. USC's score is listed first, followed by the opponent's score. Legend: * - Home Game, # - NCAA Tournament, $ - National Invitation Tournament, % - Commissioner's Conference Playoffs, + - Pac-12 Conference Tournament.
